Prepare both a summary paragraph and a general description of the resource and its various elements as it exists today.

This two-story single-pile two-bay framed and weatherboarded house faces west onto Sedwick Street. The house has a side-passage-parlor plan. There is an exterior brick stove flue built onto the north gable end. The original sash have a two-over-two pattern, but most windows have been replaced. There is an original two-story rear ell, a later one-story rear ell, and a fairly recent one-story north wing. The front hipped-roof porch has been enclosed. The original siding has been replaced with asbestos shingles.
